Dow Board Members need to hear from you!

25 years ago, a pesticide plant in Bhopal, India suffered the world's worst industrial disaster in history, immediately killing thousands. 25,000 have died and thousands are permanently injured and forced to drink contaminated water. Join thousands of people around the world taking action to commemorate the disaster and tell the company responsible, Dow Chemical, to clean up Bhopal and go to court to face criminal charges!

Call one or all of the Dow Board Members below and say:

"My name is __ from __ and I am calling __ who is a Dow Board Member to say that Dow must face their liabilities in Bhopal. When your company purchased Union Carbide, you took on all their liabilities. Compensation to all affected individuals is both Dow's legal and moral responsibility. I am encouraging you to address your liabilities and immediately clean up the site. Stop harboring a fugitive on U.S. soil and send Union Carbide to face the Chief Judicial Magistrate's court in Bhopal."

Board Members:

Andrew Liveris, CEO, 989-636-1752; Arnold A. Allemang, (989) 636-1000; Jacqueline K. Barton, (626) 395-6075; John B. Hess, (212) 997-8500; Geoffery E. Merszei, (847) 615-8941; James M. Ringler, (847) 615-8774; Paul G. Stern, (301) 869-7007
